Leading Person-Centred Culture & Care at NHS Grampian: An NMAHP Leader's Programme

Nurses and Midwives in leadership roles are invited to apply for a place on the Leading Person-Centred Culture & Care Programme. There is an opportunity to attend the 4-day programme and follow up days. There is also an additional opportunity available for four interested staff, who have undertaken the full programme and have experience of facilitating, to undertake a 3-day faculty trainers programme to become part of the team supporting the delivery of the programme in the future. Further details of the programme, dates and times, as well as the application form are available here (intranet link, networked devices only). Applications should be submitted by Friday 12 January.

That was the week that was Here's what we shared in the first week of 2024:

Monday 1 – Public holiday – no brief

Tuesday 2 – Public holiday – no brief

Wednesday 3 – guidance on treating people with suspect/confirmed 'flu, information on shingles vaccination programme

Thursday 4 – Health and Care (Staffing) (Scotland) Act, Open University nursing degree opportunities

STAR Award A massive 'well done' to the nursing team at HMP & YOI Grampian in Peterhead, who were presented with the team STAR award just before Christmas. Our thanks again to everyone at M&S Simply Food in ARI, for the extra goodies they provided for all December winners. To make a STAR award nomination, simply complete the online nomination form, or email the details of the person/team you want to nominate to gram.staffthanksandrecognition@nhs.scot.

Tune of the day We round off the week by marking two very different lives. It was 38 years ago yesterday we lost Phil Lynott, lead singer of Thin Lizzy. From their amazing 'Live and Dangerous' album, please enjoy Dancing in the Moonlight. Also yesterday, Glynis Johns, star of stage and screen, best known as Mrs Banks in Mary Poppins, died at the age of 100. The classic Sister Suffragettes can see us into the weekend

Whether you've been easing yourself back into work, or it's been a standard week, thank you. I hope you have an enjoyable weekend. The brief will return on Monday (EP).
